School Discipline Policies

Another year in the books... .and 2018 seemed to last far longer than a mere twelve months. If a violent incident does occur, good school policies and procedures ensure that everyone knows what to do to stay safe. Employees may not entirely understand a policy or know how to put it into practice.

Policies and Practices Affecting Students

Once developed and written, policies and procedures must be communicated and put into practice, otherwise they remain ineffective and a waste of time and energy that was used to develop them.

Code of Conduct

Any University employee who observes a possible violation of law, regulation, policy or approved procedure has an obligation to report it.
