All envoys are recorded to have carried the rank of Grand Director in both inscriptions, except Zhang Da who was reported with the rank of Senior Assistant Director in the Liujiagang inscription and the rank of Grand Director in the Changle inscription. On the arrival of the we may learn who these people are, for the , who was given him by the Moorish king, and whom he took away contrary to his inclinations, is with him, and may be able to tell. Inner sounds become audible, cracks, sighs, caresses, twigs, birdbreath, toenails of squirrel.

Ming treasure voyages

After the voyages, subsequent Ming emperors would reject the Yongle Emperor's policy of bringing the maritime trade into the structure of the tributary system. Ring out a slowly dying cause, And ancient forms of party strife; Ring in the nobler modes of life, With sweeter manners, purer laws. Over the course of the following four to eight weeks, the fleet would gradually proceed to Taiping anchorage in , Fujian, and wait there for the favorable before leaving the Fujian coast.
