A renewed impetus to railroad building and an increased demand for rolling stock has had much to do with producing this renewal of activity both in iron for car, bridge and track construction, and in steel rails. The only way to avoid this would be to impose an embargo halt on exports.

Letters H

The presentation of quickening ideas is itself a delicate art, which I have, however, considered elsewhere. They are forced to conceal their aims.

Recollections of a Lifetime, by Samuel Griswold Goodrich (1856)

We are met with a difficulty—that the Bible is, in fact, a library containing passages and, indeed, whole books which are not for the edification of children; and many parents fall back upon little collections of texts for morning and evening use.

Chapter XVIII: The Occupation Troops

They became part of the regular Forces of the Crown.

Recollections of a Lifetime, by Samuel Griswold Goodrich (1856)

The shelling of Montrouge continued simultaneously with that of Vanves. Fant, city editor, and Maj. Never have we been so near the end.
