Guru

The Anand hymn is sung, in contemporary times, not only during Sikh weddings but also at major celebrations. One of his points is that spiritual teachers should have high standards of moral conduct and that followers of gurus should interpret the behavior of a spiritual teacher by following and by using, and, should not naively use mystical explanations unnecessarily to explain immoral behavior.

Guru

This guru-driven tradition included arts such as sculpture, poetry and music. The Sikh hagiographies called janam-sakhis mention that Guru Amar Das persuaded Akbar to repeal the tax on Hindu pilgrims going to Haridwar. They who choose to live in the temples — now a very small minority — chant the mantra 1,728 times a day.

Guru Amar Das

He learnt from her about Guru Angad, and with her help met the second Guru of Sikhism and adopted him as his spiritual Guru who was much younger than his own age. This is far from the truth.

Guru

Yoga and the Hindu Tradition 1977. Deutsch observed that this man's mostly followers interpreted the guru's pathological mood swings as expressions of different Hindu deities and interpreted his behavior as holy madness, and his cruel deeds as punishments that they had earned.

Guru Amar Das

According to Kranenborg 1984, fits the Hindu definition and characteristics of a guru.

Guru Amar Das

These defects include the authoritarian control of the guru over the disciple, which is in their view increased by the guru's encouragement of to him.

Each religion talks of a universal God, who is eternal and infinite. The guru is one who initiates, transmits, guides, illuminates, debates and corrects a student in the journey of knowledge and of self-realization.
