Racism and immigration in Britain

Four of us were brothers, and the others were a cousin and the children of family friends. The fort was the first permanent structure built by Europeans in subSaharan Africa.

The History of Blacks in Britain: From Slavery to Rebellion

However, the available evidence suggests that since the 1970s, most immigrants have been professionals and their family members.

In search of the motherland

Other factors leading to an increase in refugees within the UK included the Ugandan Crisis in the 1970s and the tension and political turmoil in the Soviet Union territories. In some boroughs such as Lambeth, 77% of arrests for SUS were Black people.

On national Windrush day, this is the
