Terms of Admission into Communist International

It is the duty of parties which have still kept their old Social-Democratic programmes to revise them as speedily as possible and draw up new communist programmes in conformity with the specific conditions in their respective countries, and in the spirit of Communist International decisions. Sékou Touré, who led the independence movement in Guinea, Africa's newest independent state, also got his start in politics as a labor leader. Ceylon, Indonesia and Cambodia are among those who turned it down.

Labour leadership in the 21st century: Challenges and transformation

But a system which is good for the Europeans Asians or Americans is also good for the African people.

Communist Theory in the Nigerian Trade Union Movement

Shriver, a millionaire who made his pile in land speculation in Chicago, was also known as the friend, confidant and co-worker of the former head of the Central Intelligence Agency, Allen Dulles. Augustine of Hippo, the 4th century theologian, among notable others, had subsequently written copiously about that proposition, culminating in his magnum opus: The City of God. Under this guise, a flood of anti-liberation propaganda emanates from the capital cities of the West, directed against China, Vietnam, Indonesia, Algeria, Ghana and all countries which hack out their own independent path to freedom.

Leftist Intelligentsia, Labor Union Education, and Decolonization

Each of the three organisations represented different trade union tendencies. To such an extent did its prestige suffer under these American bosses that, in 1964, the AFL-CIO brains felt it necessary to establish a fresh outfit. Federal Bureau of Investigation FBI.

Labor's Role in Newly Developing Countries

Its leaders are also the leaders of the Communist Party and, while it pretends to certain economic and social aims, it is largely a political movement, plainly directed from the Soviet Union. .

Marxism: Intellectual Ammunition for the Nigerian Working Class

Their analyses particularly paid close attention to the background to the 1966 disturbances.
