Additional workspace is available in our larger teaching studios as needed. Your local artist guild can probably connect you with local residency opportunities, as well as regular opportunities to and the further development of your craft. Artists, writers, composers, musicians, and dancers all need significant chunks of time to dedicate to their creativity.

Artist In Residence

Artist In Residence

Many of the European artist residencies have reciprocity agreements with countries around the world. Joining a Community Artist residencies very often take place in a larger art community that not only provides camaraderie with other artists, but also provides value to the community at large through art workshops, classes, and programs. They assume different forms including a longer-term collective at an artist colony, a weekend retreat, or a month-long residency.
