Resource Guide

Extended unpaid leave of absence Departments may grant an unpaid leave of absence for up to one year for various reasons such as caring for a new child, family crises, or family activities.

STAR Events

The following quiz can help you narrow down your choices. Involving families in case planning empowers them to express their feelings and concerns, ask questions, and improves communication overall.

STAR Events

Participants must prepare a portfolio, conduct classroom observations, plan and execute a lesson, develop an FCCLA integration plan, and deliver an oral presentation.

What should go in your kit? They may be used, along with applicable statutory plans and bylaws, in making planning decisions. If you lost power, how would you eat? This will minimize potential errors in the agreement and need for multiple submissions. There are more than 30 STAR Events students can choose to compete in, all which recognize participants who demonstrate their knowledge, skills, and abilities to actively identify an issue concerning families, careers, or communities, research the topic, and develop and implement a project to advocate for positive change.

Not from your TV or computer! States generally require a case plan when a child is placed in out-of-home care or when a child and his or her family are receiving any kind of in-home services to prevent placement. PDF - 3,623 KB Strategies 2011 Offers a framework to guide staff and organizations in reviewing, discussing, and adapting their approach to case management; highlights programs that are implementing best practices; and includes questions to consider when incorporating partnership into case management. PDF - 1,441 KB Hennepin County, Minnesota 2016

Reviews different aspects of the child welfare practice model, including planning, and stresses the importance of using a team approach to planning, which includes the child, the extended family, providers, Tribal representatives, and social services staff.

Be sure to ask your chapter adviser for the STAR Event guidelines and discuss any eligibility criteria before making your final decision! The article presents a personal story from a foster care agency worker about her experience working directly with families. Once you take a look at the basic items, consider what unique needs your family might have, such as supplies for pets or seniors.

If you wish to clear your settings and view all content, use the Clear Filters button. The manual includes guidance on case plan content; identifying services, supports, and tasks to include; and developing behavior-change statements in collaboration with the parent or legal guardians. The settings you select are persistent and will apply to other pages.
