Moses Hess and The Link Between Bolshevism and Zionism

BOLSHEVISM WAS JEWISH IN CHINA. Hess contemplated the rise of Italian nationalism and the German reaction to it, and from this he arrived at the idea of Jewish national revival, and at his prescient understanding that the Germans would not be tolerant of the national aspirations of others and would be particularly intolerant of the Jews.

The great teachers of the knowledge of God were always Jews. Neocons are dirty filthy Republican cunts, Democrats are more polite.

Moses Hess began both Communism and Zionism, which are one in the same.

He changed his name to Moses in protest against assimilationism. Perhaps powerful movers and shakers behind the world scene eventually did indeed sign off on his plan.

Moses Hess and The Link Between Bolshevism and Zionism

And when people reproached him for his former opposition to the Jews, he openly confessed, that for a long time he had been unable to overcome his antipathy to the Jews, but that finally the principle of justice and humanity had triumphed in him. The first succeeded through the Zionist movement and the re-birth of Israel in 1948 while the second failed with the end of the Cold War.

Both sorrow and joy are contagious. Yet it seems that a final race struggle is unavoidable, if the German politicians, failing to grasp the situation, do not attempt to oppose the tremendous current of reaction, which will ultimately involve Germany in a collision with the Romance nations, and will also entrap the progressive German democrats in the net of Romantic demagoguery. An influence similar to that of Christianity is exerted by Islam in the East.

Still earlier, Gabriel Riesser, one of our most progressive German Jews, had the courage to name his magazine, devoted to the interests of our political and civil rights, The Jew Dr. Signs of endeavor to introduce into Judaism a more healthy and natural spirit, I notice everywhere: in America, where new Jewish communities are founded and synagogues built every year; in France, where an attempt was made to found an Alliance Israelite Universelle, which may become an important factor in Jewish life, provided it be animated by a thorough Jewish national spirit; in the German and French literatures, where writers like Kompert, Strauben, Weill and Bernstein have portrayed Jewish life faithfully and beautifully, and with no small measure of success.

The gentiles were fated to be reduced to a faceless, deracinated mass. This is a compact, lucid study of a notable thinker of the nineteenth century whose insight reached into the twentieth.
