What is Ortho

There's a section where Cathach comes back after riding his chariot off into battle alone, and he's been ripped to bits. There was one point when the men of Ulster were rallying and it was like a role call of medieval superheroes.

Carson tries for a greater fidelity to the original verse form, which makes for a much choppier, less intelligible translation.

Táin Bó Cúailnge

Cu Chulainn emerged victorious and kills Ferdiad with the Gae Bolga, a legendary spear similar in importance to King Arthur's Excalibur.

It is a minor embarrassment that I had not read The Táin until last week. However, this text also demonstrates the complex interplay of culture because these pagan Celtic myths were recorded by Christian monks centuries after Ireland converted to Christianity. Women were their pleasure toys.

The Táin Summary

Like any self-respecting national saga, the Irish Tain lacks a single definitive version. To me, this epic is a heartbreaking, haunting, and warning portrait of what man without religion is like. You may then purchase a copy of the document or, if the document is before 1823, it will be on microfilm at the Family History Library.

Visit Tain

A successful national epic will presumably reflect the concerns of the listeners -- people who make a living by taking to the sea in boats worry about sea-monsters, lost ships, threats of a maritime nature. With each drink he blesses her, and the blessings heal her wounds.
