Ballads on Mostly Medieval

It's not something I probably would have picked up myself - it was a gift, and I was very excited when I opened it! I also would have liked notes from the authors explaining their take on the ballads.

However, less writing means more room to showcase Vess's lovely artwork. Typical subjects include mining, raising and droving cattle, wanderings, war stories, the class conflicts between the landless working class and the landowners, and such as, as well as love interests and more modern fare such as.
