En nuestro Episodio 14 hablaremos con 3 invitados que nos acompañan de Chile, Bolivia y Colombia sobre la polarización extrema en América Latina. A regulation of the Energy Efficiency Law, as well as the Electric Mobility Law, are halfway towards entering into force.

Sobre el Diálogo

Dominican Republic From 2018 to January 2020 the number of electric cars on the road increased from 55 to around 472. And do countries in need of development finance have to choose between one or the other? Still at an early stage of adopting the technology, Latin American and Caribbean countries are gradually growing the number of privately-owned electric vehicles EVs on the streets. The offer was rejected by the government in favour of a smaller hospital that was beset by delays and allegations of corruption and only 11.

Fidel Castro aplaudió a Suárez mientras descendía del avión

The goal for 2030 is to have 5% of all cars and buses using electric energy.
