America Needs More Teachers of Color and a More Selective Teaching Profession

We support the work of teachers through initiatives and resources that lift the profession and help educators and students succeed.

Professional Teacher Charter Schools: Proposal with Model Legislation

Mathematica Policy Research, March 2012.

Proposal Reviewer Application Overview

Silva, Tim, Allison McKie, and Philip Gleason.

Transforming Teaching and Leading

These policy changes resulted in remarkable changes to the selectivity of the teaching profession in New York. In most states, there is a large and growing gap between the percentage of students of color and the percentage of teachers of color. Rhode Island takes these requirements further than most states, joining only Delaware in articulating clear state policy that requires higher GPA and standardized test scores outright.
