

Jaybird - A.J. Moxham and the manufacture of the Johnson rail

Johnstown Area Heritage Association - Vol. 58, No. 4, October 1991 of Pennsylvania History: A Journal of Mid

Description: -

-

General & Literary Fiction

Johnstown (Pa.) -- History.

Street-railroads -- Track -- Design and construction -- History.

Steel-works -- Pennsylvania -- Johnstown -- History.

Johnson Company (Johnstown, Pa.) -- History.

Moxham, Arthur James, 1854-1931. Jaybird - A.J. Moxham and the manufacture of the Johnson rail

- Jaybird - A.J. Moxham and the manufacture of the Johnson rail

Notes: Includes bibliographical references (p. 74-80) and index.

This edition was published in 1991

Filesize: 55.34 MB

Tags: #Lorain ##3 #& ##4 #Blast #Furnace

Brady's Bunch of Lorain County Nostalgia: National Tube Division

For its first three years, the Lorain plant was operated as the Johnson Company. Absorbed: Journals that are combined with another title.

Lorain #3 & #4 Blast Furnace

Lister, Louisville; James Jock and Joseph Wilson, U.

Brady's Bunch of Lorain County Nostalgia: National Tube Division

There were no blast furnaces, and pig iron from which the steel for the rails was made, was imported from outside furnaces.

Brady's Bunch of Lorain County Nostalgia: National Tube Division

The history of the plant begins logically in Johnstown, Pa. The specialty trackwork operations at Lorain were cut in 1959 and the fabricating mills were dedicated to pipe rolling and other specialty castings. Advertising piece in the Kentucky State Gazette and Business Directory 1883-84 George Yater.

Lorain #3 & #4 Blast Furnace

It's written by Robert Urquhart, the General Superintendent at that time of the Lorain Works, National Tube Division of the United States Steel Corporation, and it provides a nice history of how the steel mill evolved.

Railway & Locomotive Historical Society, Inc

By the way that building was still there the last I knew. Steel Corporation , and personal and family photographs graciously shared with the author by the families of Arthur J. Standing are from left : Clement F.

Related Books

- Conversation for action - the computer terminal as medium of communication
- Flowering plants of the world
- Culture of opera buffa in Mozarts Vienna - a poetics of entertainment
- Interview with my grandfather - World War II in the Pacific
- Cairngorms estates - a survey of landowners in the Cairngorms Partnership area