Christian

The more people we can get engaged in interfaith activities the better. Rabbi Awraham Soetendorp Interreligious friendship is my life. All religious communities and institutions live within their history of violence, oppression or abuse and are tempted to corruption in their present existence.

Can Interreligious Dialogue Be Truly Religious?

So, Pope Francis, to thank you for your own inspirational contributions on our historic journey of friendship, we'd like to offer you three small symbolic gifts that relate to the past, present, and future structure of our conference. Shrivatsa Goswami 22 March 2012 It is my existential predicament hence it is a life enriching process for me.

Religious Leaders' Testimonials on Interreligious Friendship

All the others are different ways to the Real, to use the words of Hick. There is another personal episode I would like to share.

Complexity, Cooperation, and Commitment in Interfaith Dialogue

People in the rough grounds have even no time for these preoccupations.
