Parliamentary Boulangism After 1889 on JSTOR

While in parliament, Boulanger did not distinguish himself as an orator or a statesman, and eventually resigned his seat.

La fin du Boulangisme, par Grégoire Seither

There are painful sob stories of scared congressmen. Once seen as a republican, Boulanger showed his true colors in the camp of the conservative monarchists. But for this piece, such things do seem irrelevant, if only because the message is that the past four years were also irrelevant.

boulangism : définition de boulangism et synonymes de boulangism (anglais)

Nationhood and Nationalism in France: From Boulangism to the Great War, 1889—1918. The day after, the president's son-in-law got his imprisonment quashed. La participation du peuple aux manifestations, aux grÃ ves et aux violences inspirÃ es ou appuyÃ es par le gÃ nÃ ral reste malheureusement dans le vague.

Encyclopédie Larousse en ligne

The struggle between monarchists and communists was often described as a struggle between the Right and the Left.
