It's Time to Reconsider Nicolas Cage's 'The Wicker Man'

May show signs of minor shelf wear and contain limited notes and highlighting. Sergeant Neil Howie of the West Highland Police travels to the small, isolated Scottish island of Summerisle, famed for their bountiful fruit harvests, to investigate the disappearance of 12-year-old Rowan Morrison. Occasionally a little fever breaks out in the lower order towards Midsummer, but Communion skins the naughtiness off their groins — if you follow my accurate but doubtful metaphor.
