Find out why someone, or a segment of the community, is vaccine hesitant.

Reporting

Campus gender-based violence is bad. Graczyk says he tries to make sure victims and families remain a key part of his stories, although it can sometimes take a lot of extra work to track down those individuals.

What I learned about journalism after 27 years in prison

In episode five, Lisa Bartfai produces a piece on restorative justice and what it looks like in practice, via the experiences of the Native American Penobscot Nation in Maine. Most states fall somewhere in the middle, allowing certain types of access but not others. For the five local beats—cops, courts, emergencies, schools, and government—you'll learn where to go for information and how to organize and present the stories your neighbors want and need.
