Update for EPS 95 Pensioners

Article 5 3 of the order describes functions which are to be exercisable by the Scottish Ministers subject to the restrictions set out in article 5 1 and 2. Those powers are repealed by Schedule 14 to the 1994 Act.

Subordinate legislation tools to support the new Act

The revocation can be empowered by paragraph 5 of Schedule 3 to the 1975 Act. The use of Scottish Parliament terminology also serves to guide the reader to that conclusion.

12th Report, 2016 (Session 4): Subordinate Legislation

Article 5 of the order sets out the functions which are to be shared by the Scottish Ministers and the Secretary of State in or as regards Scotland. In considering the instrument, the Committee asked the Scottish Government for an explanation of certain matters relating to the clarity of the functions to be conferred on the Scottish Ministers. The procedures for an appeal are suitable for subordinate legislation but the right of appeal itself is extremely important, if only from the point of view of compliance with ECHR, and seems unlikely to change.

12th Report, 2011 (Session 4): Subordinate Legislation

That repeal is once again to be commenced on 1 st April 2016 by the Local Government etc.
