By the Representation of the People Act, 1867, the University became entitled to representation in Parliament, and the first Member of Parliament to be elected was the Rt. Licensing and Revalidation of Safety-critical Professions in Industry and Healthcare. The comparatively rapid growth of the tree is its great recommendation to the planter; it is best raised from acorns sown on the spot, as they are very bitter and little liable to the attacks of vermin; the tree sends down a long tap-root, which should be curtailed by cutting or early transplanting, if the young trees are to be removed.

The UN Vienna Declaration expressed the point well when it recognised that 'the significance of national and regional particularities and various historical, cultural and religious backgrounds must be borne in mind', yet went on to insist that 'it is the duty of States, regardless of their political, economic and cultural systems, to promote and protect all human rights and fundamental freedoms'. This was accompanied with every precaution a wise and able government could suggest. Institute of English Studies, Stewart House, Senate House, Russell Square tube.
