Tuscany, these reinforcements are compulsory in any restoration work. In one region a particular devotional and ethical style developed, soon to affect the whole of Europe. Corzo, The Getty Conservation Institute, Los Angeles 1999 pp.

Hoeniger, Cathleen

The religious image comes into being in the hands of art, and through that restaging it becomes a model for art. The monastic chroniclers who describe the events from the Christian point of view are often shockingly poisonous.
