Communist International

De revolutionära gruppernas ansvar Kongressens rapporter, resolutioner och diskussioner lyfte fram att det i idag existerar en utveckling av ett underjordiskt medvetande inom arbetarklassen, efter ett årtionde av stora svårigheter. Jayalah Profesi Akuntan, Jayalah Negeri! The Third Congress of the Comintern was held in Moscow from June 22 to July 12, 1921, with the participation of 605 delegates from 103 parties and organizations including 48 Communist parties from 52 countries.

Communist International

The work of the congress was conducted in an atmosphere of businesslike and thorough discussion and constructive criticism and self-criticism. Kongressen måste därför analysera världen som den ser ut idag, vad som står på spel i de händelser som påverkar det sociala livet på den ekonomiska nivån vilket, som marxisterna vet, i slutändan bestämmer alla de andra aspekterna, borgarklassens politiska liv och därmed konflikterna mellan de olika fraktionerna, och slutligen tillståndet hos den enda klassen som är kapabel att omkullkasta den existerande sociala ordningen: proletariatet. A correct internationalist policy by the Communist parties is of primary importance to the destiny of the entire working-class movement and the whole of mankind.

Communist International

Kongressen kan också kalla andra än unionens befattningshavare att vittna under för att utreda diverse frågor. Nevertheless, it was only possible to found the Communist International after the victory of the Great October Socialist Revolution of 1917, which had a great revolutionizing impact on the entire world and created fundamentally new conditions for the working-class struggle owing to the rise of the first socialist state in the world. A mass national liberation movement spread in the colonies and semicolonial countries, such as Korea, China, India, Turkey, and Afghanistan.

Kongres XIII

In carrying out the decisions of the congress, leading figures from various Communist parties worked in the Comintern leadership in a spirit of mutual confidence and comradely collaboration. Lenin probed the sources of left-and right-wing opportunism and emphasized the need for persistent struggle against both. One of the central questions raised at the Seventh Congress was that of the struggle against the outbreak of a new world war.

Kongressin í USA

The Seventh Congress of the Comintern was held in Moscow from July 25 to Aug. On the basis of the congress resolutions, the tactic of the united front was worked out. The ISDPG and the French Socialist Party began negotiations for admission to the Comintern.
