The most widely read recension, edited and published with commentaries by Zhang Zhupo in 1695, deleted or rewrote passages important in understanding the author's intentions. Joints between page 108 and 109 slightly cracked but holding, as well as between page 264 and page 265. Soulie de Morant worked several years in the French diplomatic corps in China, where he served as French consul in several Chinese cities.
