A license for the electronic version of this text for use by all of a college or school's preceptors and faculty members is available through ASHP. Assessment As an educator, I find this handbook continues to serve as an excellent resource for anyone wishing to augment or improve the educational component at their practice site.

Preceptor's Handbook for Pharmacists

In this section the author provides practical advice on how to integrate the pharmacy student into a busy practice.

Preceptor's handbook for pharmacists (eBook, 2016) [public-docs.talentcoach.ir]

The intent is for this book to be reflective on broad practice guidelines.

Preceptor's Handbook for Pharmacists, Fourth Edition

Most of the sections begin with clear objectives, contain easy-to-read tables and figures, and are well referenced. According to the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education ACPE Standards 2007, introductory pharmacy practice experience IPPE must comprise at least 5% and the advanced pharmacy practice experience APPE must comprise at least 25% of the curricular length of the professional portion of the degree program. Ginsburg, PhD, MS, RPh, FASHP Diane B.
