Indian Fairy Tales (Jacobs)

The deeper you dive into the words, the more meaning they have. The collections known in Europe by the titles of The Fables of Bidpai, The Seven Wise Masters, Gesia Romanorum, and Barlaam and Josaphat, were extremely popular during the Middle Ages, and their contents passed on the one hand into the Exempla of the monkish preachers, and on the other into the Novelle of Italy, thence, after many days, to contribute their quota to the Elizabethan Drama.

It's colorful, contains a beautiful purple ribbon as a bookmark, and has sixteen traditional folktales from India. Our purpose is to transform access to education.

THE WISHING TREE (a folk tale from Rajasthan)

Tales of sillies, tales of cunning scoundrels, animals tales, pure fairy tales. I have again to congratulate myself on the co-operation of my friend Mr. Some others are as staid as can be, while some are really quirky and naughty.

Fable, Folk and Fairy Tale Titles

Slavic folklore arose from the need to give meaning to the hardships of life, and to understand the brutal world around them, the foreboding forests, the thunderous seas, and the wars that raged.
