The Great Mosque (or Masjid)

The mosque was built by the Caliph Umar bin Abdulaziz when he was prince of Madinah and renewed during the Abbassid and Ottoman eras. Vaults, sometimes ribbed, offer lighting and ventilation to an otherwise dark space.

Masjid Quba Madinah, Masjid yang Bersejarah

This railway was suggested in 1864 to relieve the suffering of the hajis on their 40-day journey through the deserts and mountains of Midian, the Nafud, and the Hejaz. Congregational mosques are often expanded in conjunction with the growth and needs of the umma, or Muslim community; however, it is uncommon for such expansion and modification to continue over a span of a thousand years. Whether you live in India or overseas, you can do it.

Masjid Khalid

The battle began on March 31, 627. The battle was a fortnight-long siege of Madina by Arab and Jewish tribes. No Sindhis no baluchis want freed, this is a false disinformation propaganda that people from any region in Pakistan want secession.

Jama Masjid of Delhi

Masjid al Haram It is said that after expansion mosque will have extended space to accommodate 300,000 worshippers inside and 280,000 worshippers outside. The largest interior space is the prayer hall, 90 × 200 feet 27.

Masjid Quba Madinah, Masjid yang Bersejarah

Refurbished historic Railway station of the Hejaz Railway in downtown Madinah. The knowledge of these places has been passed down through the ages and in some cases more than one location make claim to hosting the same historical place.
