He struck them like a moth, and between morning and evening they ceased to exist; they perished without being able to help themselves. No shaving the head or the sides of beards, or gashing their flesh 21:5. 13Is it not much better that the priests should melt it down for the sustenance of the poor, if other supplies fail, than that a sacrilegious enemy should carry it off and defile it? Nor had there been a need to reflect upon those visible components required to integrate the supernatural vocation of celibacy with the masculine role.

Catholic Vocations

Sacrifices were always accompanied with , for which as the expression of their religious sentiments the Greeks showed a special preference. Would not the Lord Himself say: Why did you suffer so many needy to die of hunger? On the other hand, even at the beginning of the second century, Ep.
