Bibliographies

It also includes published articles and essays, manuscripts, typescripts, bibliographies of Holtzman's extensive collection of Israeli literature, and revisions of works by Israeli authors who either live or have lived in Israel. Its goal is to make leading academic works reference books, encyclopedias, journals, etc. They are extremely helpful in doing research on a particular topic.

Secondary sources

Kotar is an online library and digital work environment, a result of cooperation with the leading publishers in Israel. Not only will you find additional sources for your paper, but often you will also be able to make a determination whether a particular book or article is important for your topic.

Secondary sources

The collection encompasses almost two thousand rare books and serialized booklets, from the pre-State period 1928 to present day, representing a wide range of genres—from Westerns some take place in Arizona to detective stories, crime novels, science fiction, and children's books. RAMBI is based largely on the collections of the National Library. The articles listed in RAMBI are collected from thousands of journals, in print or electronic, from collections of articles and from offprints sent by researchers.
