The XP-82 display at Oshkosh last year.

Vintage 1967 Multiple Toymakers Aircraft Miniatures # 608 / Military Airplanes

The biggest problem they had was no rebuildable engines available to them. Hardcover in white jacket with British WWI biplane to front, small 4to.

Manchester Airport Planes

Other publisher paste ons, inside. Beautiful aircraft, but I think that it's underarmed. The world's preserved aircraft: where they are, what they look like, and who owns them

We have worked with Platinum Fighter Sales, Inc Platinum over the past several years on various aircraft sales and purchases. Since his naval career ended after World War II, Pace has donated all of his memorabilia, including his flight suit, to the National Naval Aviation Museum. It's pretty cool, pretty darn cool.
