Travels With Charley

Stay tuned for a lot more video coming soon. But I was also completely stumped in Livingston, Mt. It made me feel that I would have liked the man as much as I like his work.

Travels with Charley in Search of America by John Steinbeck, read by Gary Sinise by PRH Audio

This is his tale of that experience.

Travels With Charley

I had a lot of fun digging into Steinbeck and his iconic travel tale. He bought a new GMC pickup truck, which he named Rocinante, and had it fitted with a custom camper-shell for his journey. Charley is a born diplomat.

Travels with Charley: In Search of America

Have talking points completely replaced dialogue? A big part of the writing challenge is in creating a picture that the reader finds believable. The Grapes of Wrath 20th Century-Fox. We have a cigarette or a donut or a coffee and talk road talk to our fellow travelers.

One of the dullest travelogues ever to acquire the respectability of a hard cover.

Travels with Charley in Search of America by John Steinbeck, read by Gary Sinise by PRH Audio

I remember loving this book. On October 12, Steinbeck wrote a letter to his wife describing a motel in the Badlands where he was staying, on the same date October 12 as the supposed conversation in Alice. Crossing into North Dakota, Steinbeck said that always fascinated him as a place where the winters were seemingly colder and the summers hotter than anywhere else.
