They had no way to take this: Headword: dagiisláng Citation: HSD Part of speech: verb English: wave a piece of cloth Example: Dáayaangwaay hal dagiislánggan. We need every minute to work on revitalizing these languages that are the foundation of endangered cultures and civilizations — with all their stories, poems, songs, sayings, proverbs, figures of speech, jokes, liturgy, and heaps of specialized jargon from botany and agriculture and healing and just plain ways of relating to people and the world, very little of which would survive mere translation to English. These are related to the major Mohawk territories since the eighteenth century.
