And then the fun really begins.

The Night Life of the Gods by Thorne Smith

Related remotely to the Furies. This book suffers from a bad case of being nowhere near as funny as it thinks it is. Some wayward strain in Mr Hawk's nature must have reached out to the other, however, for he remained alertly poised on the mound.

The Night Life Of The Gods by Thorne Smith, Paperback

He meets Megaera, the 900-year-old descendent of one of the ancient Furies and daughter of one of the last living leprechauns, and she has the magic to turn statues into living beings.

The Knight's Tale

He seems to think that life is just one long Fourth of July. This had added to his irritation. For Daphne he entertained the envious regard of the unregenerate and senile male.
