Latinskii kvartal : stikhi studentov i vypusknikov Literaturnogo Instituta im. Gor'kogo (Book, 1990) [public-docs.talentcoach.ir]

It is quite probable that the event from 629 could be one of the main reasons for the civil war in the Western khaganate in 630. Among the numerous golden objects and jewelleries, as well as two ring-seals belonging to Kubrat sample 4 a, b it has recently become obvious that the treasure also includes another, a third ring with a cross monogram who was spelt out by Vera Zaleskaya as BATOPXANOY PATPIKIOY Bat Organa the patrician sample 3. Bichurin, which says that: In the very beginning around 626 — Bul.

It is supposed that actually Organa was the popular, from Chinese resources, leader Mohodu-Heu who was the son of the great khagan Karachurin from the royal dynasty Ashina, uncle of the khagan Tun-dzhagbu — khan Tenshehu respectively. To some extent this was due to the unstable status of the Western khaganat, especially after 603 and the raids between the tribal alliance Nushibi, connected to Ashina clan and the tribal alliance Dulu.

That was mentioned in a Chinese source dated to 629, translated and interpreted by N. In the following 631, however, Organa himself, turned already 60 and got killed in the civil war.

As the first ring with the inscription XOBPATOY — Kubrat — sample 4 a was worn by Kubrat before the patrician promotion in 635 why it was necessary for Kubrat to wear two rings with one and the same text XOBPATOY ПАТРИКИОЙ, on top of that with different shift of the monograms?! If that is true, we could suggest the hypothesis, that two years before his death Organa made the Bulgarian tribes independent. He further used in his narrative the name Bulgars.

I have certain doubts whether the inscription on the second ring is the same and exactly XOBPATOY ПАТРИКИОY The patrician Kubrat sample 4b , as the rest of the researchers think.
