Six Ways To Develop A Governance Strategy That Supports Growth

While board members will have their own perspective as investors, they have the fiduciary responsibility to represent the interests of all family office clients.

The Three Components of Family Governance

Only 30% of family businesses survive into the second generation. So how can managers apply this information to their own family businesses? UNCTAD and FBN are developing an online platform to facilitate SIFB reporting by family business entities and to gain an indication of their sustainability performance.

4 ways family businesses can lead the pandemic recovery

The family office board may also be tasked with revisiting the investment structure periodically as family members are presented with investment opportunities.
