25 Fun Facts About Ancient Egyptian Pyramids For Kids

You may ask how this relates to aliens, the answer is simple, if aliens were to have built the pyramid of Giza and built it so that the location matched the speed of light, they would have had to measure that speed in meters a human measurement that was not yet invented. Yes, it is a big crowded city and probably some men will risk a second glance at you.

Egyptian Pyramids: History and Interesting Facts

The Sphinx is an iconic Giant statue of the mythical creature with the body of a lion and the head of a human. This was due to decrease in ability and willingness to harness resources for the construction of very large projects. Workmen may have used an abrasive powder, such as sand, with the drills and saws.
