Written Articles & References

Can the soft song of printed image and metaphor compete against the blare of Fox News? The piece was good at putting the 60s explosion of local magazines and literary presses into perspective, but hardly touched on what had gone before, save to trot out , Charles Olson, , and St. The Encyclopedia of African American Heritage by Susan Altman Copyright 1997, Facts on File, Inc. In 1992, African American Review changed its name for a third time and expanded its mission to include the study of a broader array of cultural formations.
