He mistakenly kills Antonio, who has just returned to Malfi to attempt a reconciliation with the Cardinal.

Attitudes to women in Jacobean drama

Then what was his reason for secretly attempting to control her? In several of his plays Shakespeare showcases the real danger that male anxiety over infidelity posed for women. Though Shakespeare himself might not have acted in the first production of The Duchess of Malfi, the production was filled with his friends and peers.

Jacobean Era Duchess Of Malfi

From birth, Elizabethan era women were taught how to govern a household and perform domestic duties so that when they married, which was expected of them regardless of their class and ancestry, their husbands would be proud.
