In Kale, Glorious Kale, Catherine Walther shares recipes that explore all of the possibilities of this versatile vegetable. She now lives on Martha's Vineyard year-round with her husband and her poodle, tending to several large flower gardens, fishing, studying jazz piano, writing gardening pieces for the Vineyard Gazette and other publications, and--of course-- cooking. This collection of recipes and information offers: over 250 authentic dishes from the Vineyard; a new emphasis on wholesome eating, including seven new salad recipes; three complete chapters on seafood, capturing the flavor of New England, and a full chapter on Portuguese cookery, on of the various foreign influences on New Englands palate; and a new chapter on the famous West Tisbury farmers market, including recipes from some of its farmers and food vendors.

Photographs and sidebars focusing on Vineyard folklore and natural history imbue the book with a nostalgic charm that allows anyone to take home a little part of the island. Chris Fischer is a chef, farmer, and writer whose roots on the island run twelve generations deep. Beyond their legacy as revolutionaries and politicians, the Founding Fathers of America were first and foremost a group of farmers.
