They live depending on agriculture. A new group, the New CHT Council has been formed by Priti Kumar Chakma.

Tribal Life in Bangladesh

An arrangement between two families may be sealed with an agreement on a dowry and the types of gifts to be made to the groom. The hilly areas of the northeast and southeast are occupied by much smaller tribal groups, many of which have strongly resisted domination by the national government and the population pressure from Bangladeshis who move into and attempt to settle in their traditional areas. Almost all traditional dancers are women.
