Chronicles of Malabar: Elders(Archdeacon) of Pakalomattom & Palamattom(പാകളുമാട്ടം പാലമുട്ടം))

In some other Anglican churches archdeacons can be deacons instead of priests.

The Malankara Catholic Church

However, as this priest is also called Archdeacon, I would suggest that his As Archdeacon Jacob appears on the scene as a leader of the Church of Malabar in 1584, I would suggest that he was the one who inherited the office of the Archdeacon from George of Christ.

Apostolic Nunciature, India & Nepal

Contemporary eye-witness evidence that the relics had been translated from India to Edessa is provided by St. From very early times, India carried on a flourishing trade with the Middle East and the Western countries, particularly with Antioch, Alexandria and Rome by both land and sea.

CHRISTIANITY IN INDIA

On December 22nd, 1608, the Metropolitan status of the See of Kodungalloor was restored by Pope Paul V. He was a Biblical expert and a master of syriac language and literature.

The Orthodox Churches in India

The Apostle is said to have built seven churches--at Kodungallur, Quilon, Chavay, Niranam, Kokamanglam, Parur and Palayur.
