

Conservation of the heritage of churchyards - with particular reference to Wiltshire.

Oxford Polytechnic - Antiquarians: John Aubrey 1626

Description: -

-Conservation of the heritage of churchyards - with particular reference to Wiltshire.

-Conservation of the heritage of churchyards - with particular reference to Wiltshire.

Notes: Thesis (M.Sc.) - Oxford Polytechnic, Oxford, 1992.

This edition was published in 1992

Filesize: 19.56 MB

Tags: #Conservation #planning #guidance

St Sampson's Church, Cricklade

Transcript of trust deed for repair fund for mortuary chapel, 1860; copy of order in council closing the churchyard, 1860.

Australian heritage law

Use simple and jargon-free language. Altogether we evaluated the results of 97 relevant studies from five continents.

Antiquarians: John Aubrey 1626

Aubrey began work on compiling material for a natural historical and antiquarian study of Wiltshire in two parts, in 1656.

A Natural History of Churchyards

Note by John Zillwood about the porch before the great door and the south chancel door, both removed in 1852, with transcript.

Biodiversity potential of burial places

Consultants can undertake some of the detailed research and analysis as well as writing up the findings. The information will be of wider interest to experts and researchers and other people who care for similar objects or sites might also learn from your approach. I couldn't have said it up better myself.

Literary places, tourism and the heritage experience

If there are things that appear to have little value or detract from the value of the heritage you should explain why they are not valued — it is easy to dismiss as unimportant something that later proves to be worth keeping. Effective conservation management plans are designed to be working documents, changing over time as circumstances change.

Baydon, Wiltshire, St Nicholas Church

Grants of up to £50,000 for forward-thinking causes that help move their communities forward. The present 13th-century building boasts a Norman font with a superbly carved Victorian cover and excellent Victorian stained glass windows by.

Antiquarians: John Aubrey 1626

Thomas Wolsey, later Cardinal Wolsey and Henry VIII's Chancellor, was ordained as a priest here in 1498. The 1086 Domesday Book recorded the church, on land held by. Fires: Printed petitons about assistance following two fires in Amesbury, 1745, 1751, with transcripts and note about a fire in 1803.

Related Books

- Estadísticas económica de corto plazo de la Argentina
- Handbuch - Texte zu Architektur und Kunst
- Leo Strauss, the Straussians, and the American regime
- Hood County marriages, 1875 to 1900
- Clinkers register of closed passenger stations and goods depots in England, Scotland and Wales, 1830