What is a guidance note?

These documents usually discuss more specific products or issues that relate to the design, production, labeling, promotion, manufacturing, and testing of regulated products. We can assist to identify which non-corporate Commonwealth entity should be responsible for litigation where this is unclear.

Legal Services Directions and guidance notes

To discuss trialling these LexisPSL services please email customer service via our online form. They offer tools to manage legal, financial and reputational risks to the Australian Government's interests. They also give Australian Government agencies the freedom to manage their particular risks while providing a supportive framework of good practice.

Crisis management

The Office of Legal Services Coordination OLSC administers the directions. Coronavirus COVID-19 The guidance detailing normal practice set out in this Practice Note may be affected by measures concerning process and procedure in the civil courts that have been introduced as a result of the coronavirus COVID-19 pandemic. We may terminate this trial at any time or decide not to give a trial, for any reason.

Legal Services Directions and guidance notes

They do not create or confer any rights for or on any person and do not operate to bind FDA or the public. For more information please see.

Fast track—case management

Training The OLSC conducts training workshops on an as-needed basis to help Australian Government agencies understand their obligations under the Legal Services Directions, and how to comply with them. The annual registration deadline remains 30 April 2019 for reporting financial institutions RFIs. If you would like the OLSC to provide training, email or call 02 6141 3642 to discuss available options.
