A/364 of 3 September 1947

The reformer, in this case, will introduce and just enough reform to appease the peasants and contain the conflict. At the first meeting in Geneva, the Committee also took up the question of a visit to displaced persons camps, a matter which had already been discussed in both Lake Success and Jerusalem, but upon which decision had been deferred.

Government commitments

Other stages, such as policy formulation and implementation, may require different metrics. The Committee acted upon the decision taken at its last meeting in New York to visit various parts of Palestine. These are dynamic elements in the problem of Palestine which have consequences for the future, and any consideration of the Palestine question must take them as fully into account count as is possible.

Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO)

Appraisal of the Arab case 162. PCOM-RAT and comparison with other food and nutrition policy measures The PCOM-RAT shares commonalities with other food and nutrition political commitment measures measures that explicitly separate food and nutrition commitment from food and nutrition outcomes.
