Inside the East Los Angeles Ghetto, where East L.A. Gangs Roam

The greatest concentration of that population will live in East Los Angeles. A demand for labor, tradesmen, housing for all those newcomers, and the belief that the explosion would only get bigger, compelled the primary title holders to finally build a city in the space where wilderness grew -- East L. Yet, upon the outbreak of the Mexican American War in 1846, the loyalty of the natives of Los Angeles proved to be surprisingly strong, and it was the locals that stopped the run of the Bear Flag Revolt.
