She published several novels, short stories, and books of poetry; was influential in Montreal literary circles; did a stint as a radio broadcaster; and provided reports to the Wartime Information Board during World War II, possibly as an American spy. Any attempt to expand the meaning of southern history and the American Civil War era that continues to center slavery in the story and humanize the enslaved goes a long way toward eroding the Lost Cause.

Elegy

But he did not abandon writing poems for adults. Edited by Lee and Roberta Charlesworth. A sample: But what good is that in a nation of losers and quislings? Eli Mandel has called Civil Elegies one of the most important contemporary books of poetry in our country.
