45 Icelandic literature history: Sagas and heritage ideas

Its population is surpassed by countries such as Luxembourg, Fiji and Brunei and more than 50 American cities, including New Orleans, Tulsa and the California home of Disneyland.

45 Icelandic literature history: Sagas and heritage ideas

Although Iceland cooperated with the Allies, it officially remained neutral during the war. Eventually many of these Icelandic sagas were recorded, mostly in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries. At least one scholar of skaldic poetry has told me that he believes the verses were easily understood by a listener in the saga age.

From Iceland — A Very Brief History Of Icelandic Literature

The First Grammatical Treatise was followed by three others.

Project MUSE

These books are not just the works of a few, very hard working authors either. Some kennings depend on hyperbole. Interestingly, just two chapters later, Klaufi and Grís found runes carved on a ship naming the skipper, which Klaufi was unable to read.
