For the beauty of the earth
For the beauty of the sky
For the joy of ear and eye
For the love of me and thee
For the peace of man, this
For each...
For the love which from our birth
Hill and vales, and tree and bough,
Friends and brothers, and sisters

Thanksgiving Hymns

Oh Lord my God When I in awesome wonder Consider all the worlds Thy hands have made I see the stars I hear the rolling thunder Thy power throughout The universe displayed Then sings my soul My Savior, God, to Thee How great thou art How great thou art And when I think of God, His son not sparing, Sent Him to die, I scarce can take it in; That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing He bled and died to take away my sin When Christ shall come With shout of acclamation And take me home What joy shall fill my heart Then I shall bow With humble adoration And then proclaim My God How great Thou art 4. This hymn acknowledges and honors the God of the harvest, who provides all good things. This song sang a cappella in the church always seemed to bring a sense of awe as I grew up in the church.
