Professor, Vorstand, Fachrichtung: Soziologie Japans, moderne japanische Sozial- und Kulturgeschichte Dr.

The Japan Foundation

Tentō thought became popular during a time not only of large population displacement and disorder caused by the state of total war across central Japan, but also as organized Buddhist religions came under attack and began to divide and splinter. This chapter thereby shows not only the relationship between early and late Tokugawa anti-Christian discourse, but also examines the significant influence of late Tokugawa anti-Christian Mito scholarship on modern and contemporary academic writing on early Tokugawa history.

Anti-Christian discourse would not again play a central role in Japanese political or cultural life until a second surge of anti-Christian writing took place in the nineteenth century. But how and why was the suppression of Christianity extended to townspeople and peasants who, after all, seemed to pose no immediate political or military threat to Tokugawa power? In this manner, Seika emphasized aspects of Confucian practice which offer an emphasis on human agency through spiritual practice. Das Modul 2 wird in Zusammenarbeit mit BeiWai erstellt und soll den Sprachunterricht durch Übungsangebot mit Selbstkontrolle ergänzen Das Modul 3 soll den Studierenden während des China-Aufenthalts eine Verortung der eigenen Erfahrung im Universitätsbetrieb ermöglichen. This materia prima is a substance, the nature of which has no sentience and no will.
