C.P. Snow (Author of The Two Cultures)

He hated the faintest suspicion of being patronized, even when he was a world figure.

Science and Government — C. P. Snow

But if everything at this point seemed fairly unquestioningly rosy, there was one person at least whose nose Snow had really knocked out of joint: the Cambridge literary and social critic FR Leavis. Dix Professor in Constitutional Law at Northwestern University School of Law. The response was cold: it was also negative.

C.P. Snow (Author of The Two Cultures)

We can dream delicately because even to imagine it is to touch one of the most sacred of our hopes, of searching for the other part of ourselves, of the other being who will make us whole, of the ultimate and transfiguring union. They are a promise of joy.
