Frank Owen Salisbury (1874)

Roman Portraiture was based on practical political necessity.

The Kings of Pride

Indeed the Vatican almost went bankrupt during the 16th century as successive Popes spent fortunes decorating Rome. Instead, painters adhered to an hieratic style of art, in which the spiritual and human characteristics of a figure were to be inferred from symbolic motifs.

Our History

Despite its technological background, the artistic value and of this type of portraiture are in no way inferior.

Lady Godiva Procession and Pageant

State winners no longer met with judges at breakfast conferences. The body was identified by a doctor who had operated on Booth the year before, and it was then secretly buried, though four years later it was reinterred.
